ARCHERY DEER HUNTING APPLICATION - 2025

Name: _____ Date of Birth: _____

Address: _____ Phone: _____

The taking of deer by bow and arrow within the City of Hermantown requires approval and a permit administered by the Police Department to coincide with the hunting season established by the State of Minnesota.

BY CITY ORDINANCE HUNTING IS PROHIBITED:

- Within two hundred fifty feet (250') of any dwelling or other building occupied by or for human habitation or the storing of animals without the owner's consent.
- Within five hundred feet (500') of any property owned by the Hermantown Independent School District #700.
- On any land owned by the City of Duluth.
- Within 100 feet (100') of a publicly maintained City trail or improved public roadway.
- Additional restricted areas as indicated on the 2013 Hermantown Archery Hunt map, including some City of Hermantown land.

BY CITY ORDINANCE HUNTING IS ALLOWED:

- East of the LaVaque Road, on any plot of land that is five acres or more, or any number of adjoining properties that total five acres of land or more.
- West of the LaVaque Road, there is no size restriction on property EXCEPT that any lot(s) within subdivisions must have a minimum of five (5) acres.

Hunters successful in the taking of game MUST report the fact to the Hermantown Police Department (729-1200) and the DNR. Hunters attempting to recover wounded game must inform landowner prior to entering land not authorized in the hunting zone.
